

PROGRAM: 2018 HES Spring Break in Rio		Totals
Program Fee for in-country costs - Includes all lodging, 1 meal per day, orientation, entry fees to sites, events and museums, and study abroad insurance. This amount is paid through Arts and Sciences International Programs and does not show on a bursar bill. The full amount will be due by February 26, 2018. Based on 10 students. Costs may change based on number of participants and exchange rate.		$1,975
Estimated Additional Expenses
Roundtrip Airfare between OKC-Rio (high-end est.)	$1,500
Meals not included in program fee	$250
Brazil visa	$290
Miscellaneous personal expenses (souvenirs, etc.)	$175
Education Abroad Application Fee (bursar bill)	$50
Estimated Additional Expenses Total		$2,265
TOTAL ESTIMATED PROGRAM BUDGET		$4,240

Charges on Bursar's Bill Spring Semester
Although this spring semester program falls under flat-rate tuition, some per-credit-hour fees, such as the Academic Excellence Fee and college tech fees, are not included in flat-rate tuition. Those fees will appear on the spring bursar bill and are not included in this estimate. Participants are responsible for learning the details of flat-rate tuition and how it applies to them on this program.

Students needing a passport should add $150 to the cost.

Individuals may be advised by their health professionals to get vaccinations.